Course Description:
Surveying a wide range of experimental and avant-garde cinema (film, video & mixed media) from 1923 to 2013, with a central focus being artistic practice in the context of historic, industrial and cultural concerns. Students will study, conduct independent research on, and create projects that explore film/video both as a form of personal expression and as an artistic medium, rather than as mass entertainment.

Course Expectations:
1. Attendance is mandatory. 3 unexcused absences will result in a failing grade.
2. There are no make-up exams, or extensions given for projects or written work. All written work must be turned in on time. Emailed versions of written work is accepted, as long as they are accompanied by a hard copy.
3. Late projects or assignments will result in a loss of ½ letter grade for that project/assignment per day late.

Course Requirements: weight
1. Attendance/Participation 20%
2. Journal of films 10%
3. Mid-Term Test 15%
4. Hand-processing/shooting 16mm 15%
5. Final film project 25%
6. Research presentation 15%

Film Journal
You will keep a notebook on the films in this class, as well as others you are watching on your own time. These notes will ultimately cohere into a written “manifesto” that you will turn in and present to the class—a personal and considered summary of your reactions and emotions (loves, hates, disregards, inspirations, repulsions). I’m particularly interested in unexpected jolts of recognition, ideas of dream capture, unforeseen pathways into your sense of self, new tools in your sense of cinematic possibility.

Research Presentation
Each of you will give a 10-minute presentation that links the film work you are doing to one of the filmmakers— or collectives— or film movements— that pertains to this class. The idea is to present your film (or work-in-progress) in the CONTEXT of the rich history of 100 years of experimental film work. More details on this forthcoming.
Film Project
Each of you will get to work in an “analog” medium; that is to say, you will load, shoot, and develop at least one 3-minute roll of 16mm film, which will be the basis of your experimental work. You are happily encouraged to shoot more rolls than that, and you are also encouraged to use mixed media (e.g., direct editing, video effects, animation, etc.) in combination with your cinema. But at least one of your works in this class will be grounded in actual film-making. You will transfer your film to digital format, and edit your film, as much as you need, in digital media (we do not have film editing equipment).

Grading Criteria for Experimental works
Experimental works, by their very nature, are extremely subjective, and therefore difficult to grade on an artistic basis. However, it’s easy to detect lackluster effort and/or sloppy work, as well as work that is late or poorly planned and executed. You also will be expected to give a coherent & relevant presentation and short “manifesto” (written description) of your work.

The non-subjective criteria for grading your films is as follows:
Turned in on time and completed;
Ability to write about, discuss and justify process;
Ability to write about, discuss and justify goals and expectations;
Ability to write about, and justify content in a historical and cultural context.

Reading
I will present, via Xerox or email, chapters & excerpts from these, among other, texts:

“Allegories of Cinema: American Film in the Sixties,” David E. James, 1989, Princeton University Press

“Lovers of Cinema: The First American Film Avant-Garde, 1919-1945”—edited by Jan-Christopher Horak.

Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code
All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at www.umt.edu/SA/VPSA/Index.cfm/page/1321.
