FOR RELEASE FRIDAY, APRIL 22

John Sidney Shrauger of Kalispell, a senior psychology major at Montana State University, has been awarded a U. S. Public Health Service Fellowship for graduate study at Duke University, Durham, N. C., according to Dr. Bert R. Sappenfield, chairman of the MSU Department of Psychology.

Shrauger is completing work for the B. A. degree, to be granted in June by MSU, and will begin work toward the Ph. D. degree in psychology at Duke in September.

At MSU, Shrauger has been active in campus affairs. He has served as president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity and of Bear Paw, sophomore men's honorary. He is a member of Silent Sentinel, senior men's honorary; Phi Kappa Phi, scholastic honorary, and Psi Chi, national honor society in psychology.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Shrauger of Kalispell.
