FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Rev. Dr. George H. McCleave, executive-secretary of the Presbytery of Seattle, Wash., will be the speaker at the Montana State University Baccalaureate Service at 8 p.m. Sunday, June 5, in the University Theater, MSU President H. K. Newburn announced.

The Baccalaureate Service is a highlight of Commencement activities, which will get under way with the Prizes and Awards Convocation Friday at 9:30 a.m. and culminate in the 63rd annual Commencement Exercises Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Field House.

The Baccalaureate program will include organ music by Laurence Perry of the music faculty and choral music by the University Choir, directed by Joseph A. Mussulman of the music staff.

The Rev. Dr. McCleave came to Montana as Missionary Director and in 1943 was named executive-secretary of Montana-Wyoming. He became executive-secretary of the Seattle Presbytery in 1951.

He is a graduate of Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, and holds a bachelor of divinity degree from Auburn-Union. He won a fellowship to study for two terms at New College, Edinburgh, and took his doctor of divinity degree from Whitworth College. He was a pastor in New York for 15 years before he was sent to Montana as Missionary Director.
