FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, JUNE 12

Montana Music Week, an annual event at Montana State University, will cram a variety of concurrent musical activities into five days of sessions, July 18 through July 22, Dean Luther A. Richman announced.

The Montana State Music Teachers Association will conduct its 13th annual institute as part of the program. In addition to regular classes, the schedule includes concerts, recitals, professional conferences and group discussions.

A highlight of the week will be a public recital July 18 by Robert Pace, chairman of the Department of Piano at Teachers College, Columbia University, and chairman of the Piano Committee of the Music Educators National Conference. Dr. Pace will conduct master classes for teachers registered for the piano workshop.

Dr. Pace holds a master of music degree from Juilliard School of Music, New York, where he studied with Madame Rosina Lhevinne, and a doctor's degree, with specialization in piano materials and procedures, from Columbia.
