James A. Brown appointed director of residence halls at Montana State University

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases
Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/714

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

James A. Brown, newly appointed director of residence halls at Montana State University, has arrived in Missoula to take up his duties, MSU President H. K. Newburn announced.

He takes over the assignment from Mrs. Margaret M. Anderson, acting manager of residence halls since 1957, who has resigned.

The new director will be responsible for the operation of present residence hall units and for planning for expansion as needed in the future, Dr. Newburn said. He will also direct the University food service.

Brown holds B. S. and M. A. degrees in economics from Colorado State University, where he was manager of housing from 1955 until accepting appointment to the MSU staff. As an undergraduate at CSU he was assistant director of the student union, and in 1954-55 he was an instructor in economics there.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their four children will reside at 88 Arrowhead Drive.

###