7-23-1960

Herman Freudenberger and Vernon P. Snow to join Montana State University history faculty

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/715

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR RELEASE SATURDAY, JULY 23

Appointment of two new assistant professors to the Montana State University history faculty was announced Friday by MSU President H. K. Newburn.

Dr. Herman Freudenberger will teach courses in modern European history and economic history of Europe. He replaces Dr. Stephen B. Barnwell, who resigned to study for the Episcopalian ministry.

Dr. Vernon P. Snow will teach English history and English constitutional history, courses formerly given by Dr. J. Earl Miller, who has retired after 41 years on the faculty.

Dr. Freudenberger taught at Brooklyn College last year and from 1956 to 1958. In 1958-59 he was on the Rutgers University faculty. He is the author of articles in professional journals and of a book on 18th century business enterprises, to be published this year by the Harvard University Press. He holds B. S., M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from Columbia University.

Dr. Snow was a member of the University of Oregon history faculty for the past seven years. He has written several articles for professional journals. He took his B. A. at Wheaton College in 1948, his M. A. at the University of Chicago in 1949 and his Ph. D. at the University of Wisconsin in 1953.

###