FOR RELEASE MONDAY, AUGUST 8

Kay F. Selde and Harlan L. Swanson have been named instructors in the Montana State University Department of Health and Physical Education, MSU President H. K. Newburn announced.

Swanson will be an instructor in swimming, wrestling and other sports and will teach first aid courses. He taught for six years in high schools in Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming and California and for two years at the University of South Dakota. He earned a B. S. degree from Colorado State University and an M. S. degree from the University of Oregon.

Miss Selde, a 1960 graduate of the University of Washington, will teach courses in dance and in individual sports. She has held summer jobs as recreation and water safety instructor for high school camps and municipal recreation programs in Washington.
