FOR RELEASE FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14

Dr. Gene L. Erion has joined the faculty of the Montana State University School of Business Administration as an associate professor, MSU President H. K. Newburn announced. He will teach courses in finance and statistics.

Dr. Erion was professor of economics and business administration at Texas Western College for the past three years. He joined the Western State/faculty in 1949 and during his eight-year tenure became a full professor and chairman of the Division of Social Sciences. He has also taught at Syracuse University and the University of Arkansas.

From 1942 to 1945 Dr. Erion was a statistician and economist for the Wisconsin Taxpayers' Alliance; and during 1944, while on leave from this post, he was a wage economist for the Chicago War Labor Board.

Dr. Erion holds an A. B. degree from Doane College in Nebraska and M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from the University of Wisconsin. He is the author of several articles in professional journals.
