Montana State University Prof. Bert Hansen will direct a pageant drama depicting a half century of Camp Fire Girl activities. The program will be presented at the MSU Field House at 8 p.m. on March 17.

Missoula is believed to be the only Montana community planning to celebrate the Camp Fire Girls' Golden Jubilee by dramatizing the 50-year history of the organization. Many Missoulians are working with Prof. Hansen on preparations for the pageant, in which Missoula's Camp Fire Girls will participate.

Gerald H. Doty, associate professor of music at Montana State University and president of the American String Teachers Association, will participate in the program of the biennial convention of the Music Teachers National Association in Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 26 through March 1.

The ASTA's annual convention will coincide with the meeting of the MTNA. The latter is the only organization that brings together college, public-school and private teachers in every branch of music. MTNA membership numbers more than 10,000 teachers and over 2,000 of them are expected to attend the meetings in Philadelphia.
