Montana State University to send a delegation to the Model United Nations meeting at the University of Oregon

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Montana State University will send a delegation to the Model United Nations meeting at the University of Oregon in April. John Carlson, Terry, chairman of the delegation, said the group will represent the French Congo and the Republic of Chad. The two African countries are members of the Brazzaville group of nations.

Delegates are preparing position papers and preliminary resolutions for presentation at the Oregon meeting, Carlson said. MSU delegates will be seated on several committees at the meeting, he added.

MSU seniors who will attend the Model U.N. are Virginia Ragland, Fort Benton, delegation secretary; Judy McVey, Butte, press delegate; Sandra Orr, Livingston; Ali Al-Saadi, Baghdad, Iraq, and Katherine Jones, Missoula. Other delegates are Carol Cooper, Billings; Dorothy McBride, Butte; Paula Simmons, Red Lodge; John Schulz, Missoula; Allen E. Jeska, Great Falls; Joan Elder, Mullan, Idaho, and Carlson, all juniors, and Eva Neisser, Miraflores, Peru, sophomore.

Dr. Albert C. Stillson, assistant professor of political science, is adviser to the MSU delegation.

###