Presentation of awards and introduction of new members of Beta Gamma Sigma honorary fraternity highlighted the 14th annual awards banquet of the Montana State University School of Business Administration Thursday, Dean Paul B. Blomgren reported.

The program opened with the invocation by the Rev. C. William Hassler of the University's affiliated School of Religion and selections by the MSU Jubileers, directed by Joseph Mussulman of the music faculty.

Dr. Jack J. Kempner of the business faculty introduced new members of Beta Gamma Sigma. To qualify for membership students must rank scholastically in the top 10 per cent of the senior class or the top four per cent of the junior class and have a minimum grade average of 3.25 (3.00 is a B average).

Juniors elected are Martha E. Comer, Deer Lodge; Denis L. Adams, Winnett, and Marva Kirby, Maxbass, N. D. Seniors chosen are John G. Templeton, Butte; George P. Hughes, Dillon; Shirley Jean Warehime, Belt, and Norma L. Collins, Butte.
