10-9-1961

New appointments in Montana State University College of Arts and Sciences

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases
Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/1006

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR RELEASE WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11

Several new appointments in the Montana State University College of Arts and Sciences have been announced by Dean Robert W. Coonrod.

Dr. Chung-Hwan Chen will be a visiting professor of philosophy fall quarter. He has served as chairman of the philosophy departments of National Central University and National Taiwan University in China and has taught at other Chinese universities and at the University of Berlin. He holds a Ph. D. from the University of Berlin.

Also new to the Philosophy Department is Dr. John F. Lawry, who previously taught at Portland State College and College of the Pacific. He has been a teaching fellow at Harvard, where he took M. A. and Ph. D. degrees, and a teaching assistant at Stanford, where he earned a B. A. He was an officer in the U. S. Naval Reserve from 1943 to 46.

Dr. Judith Dundas will be an assistant professor of English, and James D. Allen and Jerome Richards will be instructors in English. Dr. Dundas has taught at Ohio State University, the University of Missouri and, last year, at the University of British Columbia. She holds a master’s degree from the University of London and a doctorate from the University of Wisconsin.

Allen earned a B. A. from the University of California and a Ph. D. from the University of Washington. He has taught at the University of Washington and other universities and has done editorial work in Seattle. Jerome took an undergraduate degree at the University of Pennsylvania, a master’s degree in psychology at the New School of Social Research and a master’s in English at San Francisco State College.

(more)
Dr. John Van de Wetering has been named an assistant professor of history. He comes to MSU from the faculty of the University of Washington, where he earned B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees. Appointed an instructor in political science is Hung Chao Tai, a graduate of National Taiwan University. He took an M.A. at the University of Illinois.

Daniel M. Witt has joined the Speech Department staff as an instructor. He taught last year at the University of Denver, where he earned a master's degree. He holds a B.F.A. degree from the Chicago Art Institute.

Mrs. Patricia Orlich will be an instructor in home economics. She has taught in the Butte and Manhattan public schools. She holds B.S. degrees in applied science and in home economics from Montana State College and a master's degree from MSU.

###

Publications and News Service
MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY, Missoula