11-21-1961

Jack W. Burnett, John M. Dietrich Jr., and Roy V. Morledge Jr. to speak at Montana State University Institute on Taxation and Estate Planning

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR RELEASE TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 21

Three Billings attorneys will appear on the program of the Montana State University Law School's 1961 Institute on Taxation and Estate Planning, Prof. Lester R. Rusoff, director, announced. The institute will be in session on campus Dec. 1 and 2.

Jack W. Burnett will speak on "Basic Principles of Estate Planning"; John M. Dietrich Jr., on "The Adoption of a Statute providing for Professional Associations," and Roy V. Morledge Jr., on "Tax Savings during Probate."

Burnett earned an LL. B. at MSU and an LL. M. in taxation at New York University. His experience includes a year in the Tax Department of the Shell Oil Co., New York City, and two years with a New York law firm. He has been a partner in the Billings firm of Felt, Felt and Burnett since 1954. He is a member of the Tax Section Committee on Procedure in Fraudulent Cases of the American Bar Association and a member of the American Judicature Society.

Dietrich, also a graduate of the MSU Law School, is associated with Coleman, Lamey and Crowley in Billings. He was on the MSU Tax Institute staff in 1956 and participated in the NYU Tax Institute that year. He has also served as a chartered life underwriter instructor.

Morledge holds an A. B. from Stanford University, a doctorate in law from the State University of Iowa, and has studied taxation at the NYU Law School. He is a member of the ABA Section of Taxation Committee on Tax Fraud Prosecutions.

###