Montana Music Week to start July 22

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/1147

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR RELEASE THURSDAY, JULY 19

The joint observance of Montana Music Week by the Montana State Music Teachers Association and the Montana State University Music Department will turn Missoula into a mecca for musicians from July 22 through 27.

Topflight visiting artists will take part in the program, which includes public performances, clinics, master classes and MSMTA meetings, according to Mrs. Evelyn Lindblad of Anaconda, MSMEA president, and Dr. Lloyd Oakland, chairman of the MSU Music Department.

Madame Lili Kraus, London, England, will conduct master piano classes Monday through Friday and will give a public recital Monday at 8:15 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall.

Other visiting professors are Robert Crebo, state supervisor of music, Helena; Sidney Fox, Curriculum Materials Center, Los Angeles, Calif.; Milo Hovey, education director, H. and A. Selmer, Inc., Elkhart, Ind.; John Kendall, Muskingum College, New Concord, Ohio, and Sam Smith, Clark College, Vancouver, Wash. They will be assisted by members of the MSU music faculty.

Evening events include a recital by organist Laurence Perry Sunday, a recital by Montana music students Tuesday, the 35th annual banquet Wednesday and an evening of opera Thursday.

Registration is scheduled Sunday, July 22, at 4 p.m. in the Music building, Dr. Oakland said.

###