Montana High School Music Camp

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/1148

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Two hundred high school musicians from Montana, Idaho, Washington, North Dakota, Wyoming and Canada will arrive Sunday on the Montana State University Campus to take part in the annual Montana High School Music Camp, according to William Manning, Camp Director. The two week event, sponsored by the School of Fine Arts, will provide a varied program of band, orchestra and chorus rehearsals plus chamber music, piano workshop and piano ensemble groups. The camp faculty includes James Eversole, band director, Eugene Andrie, orchestra director, George Lewis, chorus director and J. George Hummel, piano workshop director. All are members of the Music School staff.

Other groups will be directed by Miss Carol Cuttele, chamber music and Mrs. Jack Taggart, piano ensemble. Campers participating in chorus and band will have daily sectional rehearsals conducted by clinic specialists. Orchestra members will have emphasis on both large and small group playing.

Climaxing the program will be several recitals by the camp groups during the second week. There will be a chamber music concert on Wednesday evening, August 8, and a piano workshop program on Thursday August 9, both in the Music School Recital Hall. The final camp concert by the band, orchestra and chorus will be on Friday, August 10 in the University Theatre. All programs are at 8:15 and the public is invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

###