FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mrs. Harriett M. Lyon and Mrs. Dorothy M. Sidwell have been named assistant professors of home economics at Montana State University, MSU President H. K. Newburn announced.

Mrs. Lyon will teach clothing and related courses. Mrs. Sidwell will direct the nursery and kindergarten and teach classes in human development.

Mrs. Lyon has been assistant professor of clothing and textiles at Stour State College, Menomonie, Wis., for the past three years. She has also taught at South Dakota State College and in Iowa State University’s summer extension program. She holds B. S. and M. S. degrees from Iowa State University.

Mrs. Sidwell taught last year at the University of Maine. In 1960-61 she was director of the Childhood League Nursery, Columbus, Ohio. She directed a nursery school in Escuela Parrish, Colombia, South America, in 1957-58 and the following year, taught at the University of Hawaii. She was head teacher at the Institute of Child Welfare and associate in the Home Economics Laboratory at the University of California, Berkeley, from 1953 to 55 and assistant professor of child development at the University of Nevada from 1955 to 57.

Mrs. Sidwell received a B. S. from Ohio State University in 1951 and an M. S. from the University of California in 1953.
