8-28-1962

New faculty announced at Montana State University

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/1157

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR RELEASE TUESDAY, AUGUST 28

Four assistant professors and an instructor have been appointed to the faculties of Montana State University professional schools, MSU President H. K. Newburn announced.

New assistant professors are Dr. Larry M. Elison, law; Dr. Donald H. Canham, pharmacy; Edmund K. Colby, education; and Robert W. Lange, forestry. Manfred Haiges will be an instructor in forestry.

Dr. Elison will assist with the legal writing program at MSU and act as faculty adviser to the Montana Law Review staff. He has published articles in the Utah Law Review and the Journal of Public Law and has had a manuscript accepted by Michigan Legal Publications.

He received a B.A. from Idaho State College in 1955 and an LL.B. from the University of Utah Law School in 1958. After a short period in private practice in Renton, Wash., he entered the University of Michigan Law School to work for a doctorate, which was conferred this year. From 1959 to 1961 he was a legislative analyst in the Legislative Research Center in the University of Michigan Law School. Last year he taught at LaMar School of Law, Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., and served as a member of the Atlanta Court Study Group.

Dr. Canham will teach courses in pharmaceutical chemistry. After earning a Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin in 1959, he served for three years as a 1st lieutenant, working in biochemistry, at Walter Reed Army Institute of Research, Washington, D.C. He received a bachelor's degree from St. Louis College of Pharmacy in 1954 and a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1956.

Publications and News Service

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY, Missoula
Colby will teach courses and direct the audio-visual centralized service in the School of Education. He is a 1955 music graduate of MSU. Following service with the U. S. Army Signal Corps he returned to MSU to take a master's degree in 1960. He received a specialist in education certificate from Indiana University in 1961. He taught at Mankato State College last year, and in 1959-60 he was director of music for the Corvallis public schools. He worked full or part-time for McKay Art Co., Missoula, from 1947 to 1956.

Lange comes to the MSU forestry faculty after seven years as director of the Mont Alto Branch of the Pennsylvania State University School of Forestry. He has worked for a private paper company and as service forester for the Colorado State Forestry Department. He served as a captain in the army from 1941 to 1946 and again from 1951 to 1953. He holds B. S. and M. F. degrees from Colorado State University.

Haiges received a five-year forest engineering degree from MSU in 1960. He has worked summers for the U. S. Forest Service as a smokejumper and in other jobs. In 1960-61 he was a forest engineer for the Northern Pacific Railway Co. Last year he attended Colorado State University, where he has completed requirements for a master's degree.