FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The 1962 Foundation Day at Montana State University has been set for Saturday, Dec. 15, according to Gordon Rognlien, Kalispell attorney and president of the MSU Endowment Foundation Board of Directors.

Opening the day's activities will be a meeting of the membership of the foundation, which includes all individuals who have contributed to the nonprofit corporation during the past year. This session will feature election of three trustees and reports on current foundation projects.

Board members and special guests will hear informal reports from University faculty on University projects supported by the Endowment Foundation. The annual business meeting of the board is scheduled Saturday afternoon.

Among the major projects carried on by the foundation this year are the computer center campaign, the annual giving program, and a program to establish endowed professorships in several areas of study.

Members of the board of directors are Rognlien, president; Glenn H. Larson, Thompson Falls, vice president; Oakley Coffee, Missoula, secretary; Robert T. Pantzer, Missoula, treasurer; Hugh D. Galusha Jr., Helena, counsel, and trustees William M. Allen, Seattle, Wash.; Lloyd L. Callison, Gardiner; J. E. Corette, Butte; Earl L. Dahlstrom, Moore; A. T. Hibbard, Helena; T. E. Hodges, Great Falls; Joseph A. McElwain, Deer Lodge; Warren Vaughan, Billings, and MSU President H. K. Newburn.
