FOR RELEASE SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15

The Montana State University Endowment Foundation will elect officers and trustees at a meeting on campus Saturday, according to Gordon Rognlien, Kalispell, president of the board of directors.

The election will fill vacancies created by the resignation of trustee Norman J. Holter, Helena, and by the expiration of the terms of trustees Glenn H. Larson, Thompson Falls; Joseph A. McElwain, Deer Lodge, and Warren Vaughan, Billings.

The balloting will take place at the Saturday morning meeting of the foundation membership, made up of all persons who have contributed to the nonprofit organization during the past year. Members will also hear reports on foundation activities. The meeting will get under way at 10 a. m. in the Silver Bow room of the Lodge.

Board members will meet Saturday afternoon to conduct foundation business and to hear informal reports on the computer center campaign, the annual giving program and other current foundation projects.
