FOR RELEASE TUESDAY, MARCH 12

Fall-quarter scholastic rankings of campus living groups, released Monday by Montana State University officials, give first place to Delta Gamma sorority for the sixth consecutive quarter.

Theta Chi fraternity, leader of men's groups with a 2.545 grade index, was outranked by seven women's groups. Men's groups trailing Theta Chi were Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Delta Sigma Phi, Sigma Nu, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Chi, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Elrod Hall, Phi Sigma Kappa and Craig Hall.

Women's groups following Delta Gamma in descending order were Synadelphic, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Phi, Kappa Alpha Theta, Corbin Hall, Sigma Kappa, Delta Delta Delta, Turner Hall, North Corbin Hall and Brantly Hall.

Group averages ranged from Delta Gamma's 2.749 to Craig Hall's 2.060. Four of the 11 men's groups and all but one of the 11 women's groups topped the all-university average of 2.332. Fraternity men, with 2.315, fell slightly below the all-university average but placed above the 2.226 earned by nonfraternity men. As a group, sorority women, with 2.648, bested the averages of university women (2.529), nonsorority women (2.463), fraternity and nonfraternity men.
