5-31-1963

National Science Foundation Summer Institute in Mathematics

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Forty-nine mathematics teachers from high schools throughout the country will participate in a National Science Foundation Summer Institute in Mathematics at Montana State University from June 17 through Aug. 23.

Teachers selected to take part in the institute will receive the degree of master of arts in teaching mathematics upon successful completion of four summers of study in the program, according to Dr. William M. Myers, acting chairman of the MSU Mathematics Department and director of the institute.

Montana teachers selected are:

Jack A. Golden, Anaconda; Kenneth G. Reynolds and Robert H. Walker, Billings; Edward M. Wadsworth, Box Elder; Robert J. Morris, Brady; Robert L. Halgren, Charlo; Patrick W. Magdall, Choteau; Emery J. Johnson, Columbia Falls; Lawrence Boettcher, Conrad; Gary L. Wollan, Cut Bank; Robert A. Westcott, Drummond; Robert J. Day, Froid; Edward B. Davis and Clarence R. Kropp, Great Falls.

Werner Held, Frank C. McElwain, Darrell R. Rasmussen and Jack A. Swan, Missoula; John H. Oberlitner, Polson; James E. Wood, Sidney; Gary E. Boyles, St. Ignatius; Donald L. Gallagher, Stanford; Dennis L. Shepherd, Terry; Burnell G. Southall, Townsend; James R. Forker, Troy, and Richard L. Gustafson, Whitefish.

Participants are also coming from Illinois, Michigan, California, Minnesota, South Dakota, Ohio, Washington, Colorado, Oregon, North Dakota, Wisconsin and New Mexico.

###