PLEASE DO NOT RELEASE SILENT SENTINEL MEMBERS OR SIBLEY AWARD WINNER BEFORE 9 P. M. SATURDAY OR THE COEDS HONORED BY AWS BEFORE 10 P. M. SATURDAY.

The Rt. Rev. Chandler W. Sterling, Episcopal bishop of Montana, will pose the question, "Who Hears? Who Listens?" in his baccalaureate address to Montana State University's 66th graduating class Sunday at 8 p.m. in the University Theater.

Commencement activities that began Friday for 638 degree candidates continued Saturday with a military awards ceremony, the senior dinner, and presentation of special awards at singing-on-the-steps and lantern parade.

The baccalaureate service is a traditional prelude to commencement exercises, scheduled Monday at 2 p.m. in the Field House, according to Homer E. Anderson, commencement chairman. The service includes invocation and benediction by the Rev. Humphrey Courtney and a Scripture reading by the Rev. Lawrence L. Gruman.

Also slated Sunday are a concert by the University Choir and Symphonette at 3:30 p.m. in the Recital Hall, a carillon concert from Main Hall tower at 5 p.m., and art and museum exhibits in the Fine Arts building from 2 to 4 p.m.

At SOS Saturday, the Robert Sibley award "for loyalty and contributions to University traditions" was presented to David Browman, Missoula. The presentation was made by Ed Whitelaw, Summit, N. J., immediate past president of the student body.

The SOS program included the announcement of new members of Silent Sentinel by Dr. Robert T. Turner, faculty adviser to the senior men's honorary. They are Grover (Tim) Aldrich and Robert Pantzer, both of Missoula; David Fuller, Helena; Thomas Hauck, Butte; Jerry Holloron and Larry Strate, both of Corvallis; Harry (Rick) Jones, Great Falls; Douglas Manning, Kalispell; Frank Shaw, Deer Lodge; Leon Washut, Billings, and Wilbur Wood, Missoula.

Graduates and their families who thronged the oval for SOS remained to witness the colorful lantern parade staged by Associated Women Students in honor of senior women. Singled out for special recognition of their "scholarship, leadership and outstanding service to the University" were Autumn Holtz, Floweree; Linda Kammerzell, Chester; Dorothy Pemberton, Broadus, and Sandra Swank, Chester.

New AWS officers installed at lantern parade are Ann Minteer, Milwaukee, Wis., president; Lois Hurd, Great Falls, vice president; Donalee Beary, Hardin, treasurer, and Dorothy Van Blaricom, Hamilton, secretary.

The ceremony closed with "Montana, My Montana," sung from Main Hall tower by Miss Beary.
