Montana State University's 66th commencement exercises will get under way Monday at 2 p.m. in the Field House, President H. K. Newburn announced. This year's official program carries names of 838 candidates for degrees over the past school year. The total includes five doctorates, 126 masters and 707 bachelors degrees.

The University will award an honorary doctor of letters degree to Prof. Emeritus H. G. Merriam, who headed the English Department for 35 years, and an honorary doctor of science degree to alumnus Franklin A. Long, professor of chemistry at Cornell University.

Candidates for doctorates are Joseph R. Crowley of Havre, Donald C. Orlich of Butte and Jonathan V. Peters of College Place, Wash., doctor of education; Murli H. Manghani, Jodhpur, Rajasthan, India, and Bruce D. Velde, Missoula, doctor of philosophy in geology; Thomas S. Choate, Berkeley, Calif., doctor of philosophy in zoology.

The following list includes spring-quarter candidates, who will receive degrees if all requirements are met by Monday.
