Three Montana State Press Association scholarships to the School of Journalism at Montana State University have been awarded to June high school graduates, it was announced by Dean Nathan Blumberg.

The $150 awards were won by Judith Duffey of Silver Star, Dan Webber of Ryegate and Ann Hacker of Ennis, according to Ray M. Loman, publisher of the Ronan Pioneer and resident of the MSPA, and Dean Nathan B. Blumberg of the MSU School of Journalism.

Selected as alternates were Nils Rosdahl of Thompson Falls and Jean Talbott of Butte. The alternates will receive Journalism Work Awards for the freshman year if they receive satisfactory grades each term.

The freshman awards program was begun by the MSPA seven years ago to aid Montana students who showed outstanding promise for a career in journalism.
