Dorothy Van Blaricom, MSU student, killed in car accident about 9 a.m. Sept. 10. Registration in the neighborhood of 4,500 students is expected at Montana State University Missoula this fall, a new high for the campus and continuing an upward trend that has been underway for the past six or seven years.

Van Blaricom, 20, was apparently headed for Missoula. Pulled out to pass, lost control, rolled over. Think she was driving but they are not positive. Was with Steve Wanderer, also MSU student, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hieronymus of Hamilton. Apparently he was uninjured.

Parents: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Blaricom of Hamilton

Date of Birth: April 23, 1943

1961 grad of Hamilton H.S. Would be entering her junior year at MSU. Home ec major.

Dean Maurine Clow today at 2 p.m. to go over program.

This will be the first academic quarter at MSU to be administered by

Dean Maurine Clow, associate dean of students: "This is a very great loss to the University for Dorothy was a superior student and an outstanding leader in all campus and women's activities."

Mrs. Emma Briscoe, chairman, Home Economics Department: "Dorothy was an honor student in our department and one of the most promising young women that we have had - and I speak for the staff."
