FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Law School Admission Test will be given at Montana State University Feb. 8, Dean Robert E. Sullivan announced.

The test is required of candidates for admission to most American law schools, including the MSU school, the dean said.

The examination measures general background and ability to think logically and to use language effectively, according to Dean Sullivan. Sample questions, registration forms and information are included in a Bulletin of Information available in Dean Sullivan's office.

Completed registration forms must be received two weeks before the test date by Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N. J., the agency that administers the examination.

Dr. Robert V. Jones, Missoula, counselor.
