FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Pacific Northwest Conference on Foreign Languages will meet at Montana State University April 16, 17 and 18, according to Dr. Robert M. Burgess of MSU, conference president.

Participating in the 15th annual meeting of the conference will be members of the American Associations of Teachers of French and Italian, German, and Spanish and Portuguese. Also taking part will be the Montana Foreign Language Teachers Association, headed by Dr. Douglas C. Sheppard, chairman of the MSU Department of Foreign Languages. Speakers and panelists include language teachers and administrators from throughout the Northwest.

The three-day program includes a forum on problems of language instruction; section meetings on linguistics, comparative literature and general literature, and sessions for teachers of classical languages, French, Spanish and Portuguese, and German.
