3-17-1964

Joanna Lester named lead in "Anything Goes"

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Joanna Lester, star of many an MSU production, has been named as the new ingenue lead in "Anything Goes," by Cole Porter, which will open Friday night at the Thunderbird in Las Vegas, local friends have been advised. Miss Lester has just concluded an appearance in the Boston company of "The Boys From Syracuse," a role that was accorded critical acclaim in the Boston area.

Her Mother, Mrs. John Lester, Mrs. C. R. Svore, both of Missoula, and Mrs. Sylvan Pauley, of Deer Lodge, will journey to Las Vegas for the opening.

-30-

Lent to locals
3-17-64