FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, JUNE 7

Montana State University's 67th commencement exercises will get under way Monday at 2 p. m. in the Field House, Homer E. Anderson, commencement chairman, announced.

This year's official program carries names of more than 900 candidates for graduate and undergraduate degrees during the academic year, Anderson noted. Spring-quarter candidates for bachelor, master, law and doctoral degrees number more than 500.

The University will confer an honorary doctor of science degree upon Louis A. Fischl, Oakland, Calif., first graduate of the School of Pharmacy, and an honorary doctor of laws degree upon James A. McCain, president of Kansas State University, who was president of MSU from 1945 to 1950.

The following list includes spring-quarter candidates, who will receive degrees if all requirements are met by Monday:

Candidates for the doctor of education degree are Richard E. Blumell, Magrath, Alta.; Robert W. Ruppel, Deer Lodge, and Winston W. Wetzel, Missoula.
