FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A 1948 and 1953 graduate of Montana State University, Dr. Forbes Bottomly, will become superintendent of schools in Seattle July 1.

Dr. Bottomly recently resigned as superintendent of schools of Jefferson County, Denver, Colo., a post he has held for four years, to accept the new position. Prior to his Colorado job he was director of research in the Spokane school system.

The former Great Falls man received his bachelor's degree in Spanish in 1948 and his master's degree in education in 1953 from Montana State University. He earned his doctorate in education at the University of Washington.
