5-21-1965

Douglas Baldwin awarded scholarship to study ceramics at Brooklyn Museum Art School

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/1621

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Douglas Baldwin of Missoula has been awarded one of five full-time scholarships for advanced study in ceramics at the Brooklyn Museum Art School during the 1965-66 academic year.

The Max Beckmann Memorial Scholarships allow advanced students to develop in a workshop atmosphere in their own direction without an imposed program, according to James Dew, chairman of the MSU art department.

Baldwin will study under Jolyon Hofsted at the Brooklyn Museum. The scholarship will become effective in September.

Baldwin, a 1961 graduate of MSU, is a candidate for a master of arts degree in art at MSU this spring. While doing graduate study his work was accepted for exhibition in three regional art shows, the Spokane Sculpture Show, the Northwest Printmakers Show in Seattle and the North Dakota Painting Show.