Awards for achievement were presented to outstanding students Friday morning at the prizes and awards convocation that ushered in Montana State University's 68th commencement, according to Dean Robert W. Coonrod, who presided. The convocation is a traditional prelude to the conferring of degrees, which is slated Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Field House.

Many students have already been honored at school and departmental awards dinners this spring, the dean noted.

He added that more than 100 University scholarships for next year will be awarded in July. The scholarships are one-year appointments and carry exemption from the registration and incidental fee for three quarters ($150).

Awards presented Friday, and their recipients, are:

- Mortar Board (senior women's honorary) cup to the freshman woman with the highest scholastic index during the year - Carol-Lynn Greenfield, Missoula.
