FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Orientation week, a six-day introduction to campus life preceding the opening of fall quarter at the University of Montana, is scheduled Sept. 20 through 27, A. C. Cogswell, dean of students, announced.

The program includes placement tests, conferences with advisers, briefings on specific areas of instruction, fraternity and sorority "rush" and other social events, and registration. Freshmen will register Thursday, Sept. 23 and upperclass students will register the following day.

Freshmen should report to their assigned residence halls on Sunday, Sept. 19, the dean said. Those who have not taken the ACT test must do so on Sunday at 1 p.m., he added.

Upperclass transfer students are urged to be on campus Monday, Sept. 20, to start the orientation program planned for them by a special student committee comprised of Kathy Adolph, Billings, chairman; Betty Dee Taylor, Missoula; Jan Stenslie, Winifred, and Paula Flesch, Shelby.

Residence halls will open at 10 a.m. Sunday. A la carte service begins at the Lodge Grill at noon. Regular meals on food-service passes begin for dormitory residents Monday at 7 a.m.

The orientation program to prepare new students for the beginning of classes on Monday, Sept. 27, is conducted by administrative officers, faculty members and upperclass students. Roger Barber, Denton, is chairman of the student committee, and Jan Lord, Philipsburg, is vice chairman.
