We will explore various components of visual literacy including terminology, techniques, aesthetics, studio practice, and cultural context.

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS
+ How does art communicate to individuals and function in a social context?
+ How has the definition of art changed through time?
+ Why does the general public often misunderstand art, both historically and currently?
+ How do time and place affect the creation and interpretation of art objects?
+ Are there ways in which to develop understanding of artworks and visual culture outside of reading and writing?

COURSE OUTCOMES
+ Student will express her/himself in the making of original artworks.
+ Student will understand the genres and forms that have shaped the visual arts over time.
+ Student will be able to successfully critique her/his own work and that of others.

COURSE OUTLINE
The course outline is posted on Moodle. In addition, you will find a detailed syllabus below. Keep in mind that the syllabus and course outline are subject to change. Such changes are in response to students' needs and to the scheduling needs of the University and the School of Art. Any said changes will be reflected on Moodle, so please refer to the Moodle page often for activities, due dates, readings, locations, etc.

STUDENT CONDUCT CODE/CLASSROOM CONDUCT
+ All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/student_conduct.php.

+ Students may not use headphones or ear buds during class time. This course is meant to build community between one another and to learn from conversations occurring around you as you work. If we are engaged in studio practices during class time, I encourage you to walk around the room to look at other students’ work in order to learn and progress.

+ When we do engage in studio practice, I recommend that students wear clothing to class that they feel comfortable staining. (Feel free to wear an apron to class).

+ Cell phones/smart phones or any hand-held device should be put away and silenced while class is in session. They may occasionally be used for educational purposes only, such as photographing work, looking up information, or adding a due date to your calendar, etc. Texting and calling may take place before and after scheduled class times.

ATTENDANCE
Attendance at all classes is mandatory. Students are expected to arrive on time and be in class for its entire duration. All absences regardless of cause (sleeping in/travel/medical emergency/family emergency), follow the guidelines below:

+ Two absences/late arrivals/leaving early: No grade change
+ Three to four absences/late arrivals/leaving early: One full grade drop
+ Five to six absences/late arrivals/leaving early: Two full grades dropped
+ More than six absences/late arrivals/leaving early: Retake course

Lectures, discussions, demonstrations, and instructions missed will not be repeated; the absent student must obtain notes and information from another student.

Required meeting times beyond what is shown in the published Class Schedule for the term, per N.A.S.A.D. guidelines: 5 hours of studio “homework time” in addition to the scheduled class time for every 3-credit studio art course.

FINAL EXAM
Our final meeting is scheduled for the following date and time: TBA
Attendance is required. Student attendance follows the above policy.

DUE DATES
Any written work is to be typed and submitted in paper format (not e-mailed) unless otherwise noted.
All writing should be submitted in APA 6th edition format:
https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/

Late work is not accepted. If you predict an absence, submit assignments early. This policy comes with a caveat: students may revise assignments post-deadlines to improve their grades. This must take place within one week of the deadline. Both dates need to be included on the assignment in question.

WRITTEN AND STUDIO ASSIGNMENTS
Approximately half of the work assigned in this class will be in written format. Well-written papers are required for this course. Check written work carefully before submission. If you are not a strong writer, please make use of The Writing Center at http://www.umt.edu/writingcenter/

Approximately ¼ of the work in this class will be devoted to quizzes, while another ¼ of the class will be devoted to studio-based work in individual, small-group, and large-group formats.

LEGIBILITY AND LABELING
Label all written class assignments in accordance to the APA 6th edition format. Label any other assignments with your name, course number, assignment title, and date. Label any artwork in this fashion on the back. Any hand-written materials (reflections perhaps) should be presented in a legible and professional format.

STUDENTS WITH ACCESS/SPECIAL NEEDS
Students with disabilities may request reasonable modifications by contacting me within the first two weeks of the course. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). “Reasonable” means the University permits no fundamental alterations of academic standards or retroactive modifications. For more information, please consult http://life.umt.edu/dss/.
