Institute on Taxation and Estate Planning scheduled for December 3 and December 4

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/1681

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The 13th annual Institute on Taxation and Estate Planning conducted by the University of Montana School of Law is scheduled on campus Dec. 3 and 4, according to Prof. Lester R. Rusoff, institute director.

The institute is open to lawyers, accountants, insurance underwriters and trust officers, he said.

Members of the advisory committee that worked with the director in planning the program are attorneys Joseph G. Mudd of Great Falls, George D. Goodrich of Missoula and Jack W. Burnett of Billings; certified public accountants John N. Newland of Butte, Dale U. Fuehrer of Helena and Duane E. Smith of Billings; chartered life underwriters Howard F. Hoene of Billings, Austin Redding of Butte and LaVerne E. Sebens of Great Falls, and trust officers Dan Dykstra of Helena and Livingston Rodgers of Great Falls.

##