Course Objectives
DANC 300 is designed for the intermediate-advanced modern dancer. Fundamental skills to advanced concepts of modern dance will be explored through technique & improvisation.

- To heighten self-awareness in technique, movement dynamics and performance
- To begin to develop personal ownership (voice) of movement
- To invest in complex movement phrases
- To interact with other dancers, making it a shared experience in phrase work and improvisation
- To create and develop unique movement sequences and individually or collaboratively organize that material into greater phrase work
- To critically evaluate and objectively discuss dance performance (including technique and expression)
- To defend a grand appreciation of dance

Specifically, this semester we will be looking at:

- Dynamic Alignment
- Line & Form
- Effective Body Patterning
- Spatial Awareness
- Rhythmic Accuracy
- Initiation and Follow-Through
- Strength, Flexibility, and Endurance
- Professionalism, Etiquette and Performance Ability

Attire:
Please wear comfortable clothes that allow for freedom of movement. - No street shoes, food or gum in the studio.

Important Details to note:
- We will NOT be meeting during FINALs week.
- If at any point you feel further discussion would aid your development, please schedule a meeting with Joy.
- If you are sick or injured please talk to the instructor as soon possible before class. This includes any pre-existing conditions/injuries that should be shared.
- If you get injured during class get the instructor’s attention immediately
- Restrooms / locker rooms are located across the hall.

Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code
All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/student_conduct.php.

All Theatre & Dance students must have an in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the School of Theatre & Dance Student Handbook. The Handbook is available online at http://www.umt.edu/umarts/theatredance/About/handbook.php. There is inherent risk involved in many Theatre & Dance classes as they are very physical in nature. Please proceed through class, shop time, or rehearsal with caution. Always be mindful of your personal safety and the safety of others. Students participating in class/shop/rehearsal/performance do so at their own risk.

Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student’s time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without my consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student’s grade.

The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). If you think you may have a disability adversely affecting your academic performance, and you have not already registered with DSS, please contact DSS in Lommasson 154. I will work with you and DSS to provide an appropriate accommodation.

Your instructor MAY choose to offer students a chance to use attendance at additional performances as make ups for absences at the instructor’s discretion

Your instructor will require a written critique, quiz, or something else of his or her own choosing. You will need to give specific examples, so take notes either during or after the concerts. As you watch, it will be helpful to think about the following:

1. Which pieces you felt strongly about (i.e., either really liked, disliked, were puzzled by, etc.)
2. On the choreography of each piece;
   a. What is the theme or movement idea?
   b. What is the style of dance and how does it work with the theme?
   c. What is it about the movement or the way the piece progressed that made you react as you did?
3. Your reaction to the performances of the dancers: expression and technique.
4. Your opinion on the theatrical elements: costumes, lighting, sets and sound score. Did they work with the choreography?
   Provide specific examples to back up your opinions
Attendance and Grade Policy–Dance Technique

Attendance is important in any field, but vital in the field of dance. Learning to dance requires that your body do it. You won’t gain in flexibility, and strength, or in your ability to pick up movement or generate your own movement by hearing about what happened from a classmate, or reading a book. In other words, there is no way to make up the material you miss.

So, WE EXPECT YOU TO BE IN EVERY CLASS. However, knowing that unpredictable circumstances can arise, we are giving you two absences. You may also make up two classes. You can do this by watching, and writing a one-page observation of another dance class that is either a more advanced level of the style you’re studying or a different style, or by participating in another section of the same level and style of class that you’re taking.

AFTER YOU HAVE USED YOUR TWO ABSENCES AND TWO MAKEUPS, YOU WILL BE DOCKED ONE-THIRD OF A GRADE FOR EVERY ABSENCE FOLLOWING.

GRADING: Dance is different from many other fields in that a student’s work is not as quantifiable as it is in some other subjects, such as history or math. For this reason we do not have a point breakdown, but rather general guidelines.

To receive an “A” you must:
- show signs of aptitude for dance technique, and musicality
- have an energetic, attentive attitude
- progress over the semester
- be at the top level of the class
- and, of course, fulfill the attendance, critique, and exam requirements

You will receive an “F” if your absences and lack of critiques add up (or subtract) to an “F.” Your grade will be lowered by one-third of a point for each critique you do not hand in (e.g., if you start with a B, your grade will drop to a B-, then C+ and you will receive a “C+”).

You may receive an “incomplete” (I) only if you have exceptional circumstances, which you have discussed with the instructor.

NOTE: LOCKER RENTALS ARE AVAILABLE FOR ALL STUDENTS IN THE DANCE CLASSES. WE RECOMMEND THAT YOU DO NOT LEAVE PERSONAL BELONGINGS UNATTENDED IN THE DRESSING ROOMS, HALLWAYS, OR DANCE STUDIOS, AS THEFTS FREQUENTLY OCCUR. LOCKERS MAY BE RENTED FOR $7.00/SEMESTER, OR $13/TWO SEMESTERS. (see Dance Program administrative assistant—door across from women’s dressing room and then up the stairs.)
