Guidelines for Artists and Writers

CutBank is interested in art, poetry, and fiction of high quality and serious intent. We regularly print work by both well-known and previously unpublished artists. All manuscripts are considered for the Richard Hugo Memorial Poetry Award and the A. B. Guthrie, Jr. Short Fiction Award.

- We accept submissions from August 15 until April 15. Deadline for the spring issue is November 15; deadline for the fall issue is April 15.
- Include a stamped, self-addressed envelope for response or return of submitted material.
- Manuscripts must be typed or letter-quality printout, double-spaced, and paginated. Your name should appear on each page. We encourage the use of paper clips rather than staples.
- Fiction writers should submit only one story at a time, no longer than 40 pages. Poets may submit up to 5 poems at one time.
- Artists and photographers may submit up to 5 works at one time. Send slides or reproductions only; do not send original art.
- If a piece has been submitted simultaneously to another publication, please let us know.
- Please address all submissions to the appropriate editor—poetry, fiction, or art—at the following address:

The spring 2001 Mississippi Review will celebrate the 400th anniversary of Hamlet with a special issue conceived and edited by David Berry. A $500 prize will go to the "best of the issue." There is no reading fee.

We urge the discovery and contribution of parodies, newly unearthed soliloquies, cartoons, letters between (or addressed to) the characters, short stories, prose poems, plays, and other material fitted to the Hamlet universe. The editor is also interested in critical articles, but only as authored by poets, playwrights, or fiction writers, please (Hamlet being all three).

Send submissions to David3Berry@aol.com or to 306 Washington Ave., Ocean Springs, MS 39564. Postmark deadline is October 27, 2000.
