Art

Wendy Lu is a Toronto-based visual artist who is currently working on various mediums that explore how the phenomenon of genetic duplication relates to the core values of postmodern societies. Her artworks have been exhibited at the Greenbelt Arts Center, McNaire Gallery, and Mercer Union in Toronto, Ontario.

Tom Wagner is a painter currently working in the Washington, D.C. area. His work has appeared on the covers of The Literary Review, New Delta Review, Cafe Review, and New Letters. His background in dance and theater, especially his training with Martha Graham and Leonide Massine, is influential in his visual work.
Guidelines for Artists and Writers

CutBank is interested in art, poetry, and fiction of high quality and serious intent. We regularly print work by both well-known and previously unpublished artists.

- We accept submissions from August 15 until March 15. Deadline for the spring issue is November 15; deadline for the fall issue is March 15.

- Include a stamped, self-addressed envelope for response or return of submitted material.

- Manuscripts must be typed or letter-quality printout, double-spaced, and paginated. Your name should appear on each page. We encourage the use of paper clips rather than staples.

- Fiction writers should submit only one story at a time, no longer than 40 pages. Poets may submit up to 5 poems at one time.

- Artists and photographers may submit up to 5 works at one time. Send slides or reproductions only; do not send original art.

- If a piece has been submitted simultaneously to another publication, please let us know.

- Please address all submissions to the appropriate editor—poetry, fiction, or art—at the following address:
