Course Overview
Welcome to Principles of Entertainment I. This course is designed to provide you with first-hand experience in applied event management. The course will allow you to better understand the processes involved in the conceptualization, development and production of live events. The course is highly interactive. It will challenge your ability to communicate effectively.

The purpose of this course is to synthesize real world situations with classroom learning. Students will be responsible for planning, promoting, and collaborating with the Missoula Cultural Council to execute the four local auditions which will culminate in the First Night Spotlight at The Wilma Theatre. This project is to be an educational, hands-on experience for the Fall MGMT402 students. Class content will include, but is not limited to, budgeting, marketing, public relations, networking, relationship building, event planning, and non-profit arts organization management. Since this will be high-profile collaboration with an important community arts advocacy organization, it is important that students take their role seriously and conduct themselves in a professional manner. You will be representing the SoBA and the University of Montana at area high schools and in the community.

Learning Goals - After completing this course, a student will be able to:
• Define commonly used terminology in the field of entertainment
• Understand the role of the artist, agent, promoter, business manager, tour manager, production manager, venue manager, publicist and record label
• Research artist tour history, obtain artist & venue contact information, keep current with entertainment industry news and view upcoming events using Pollstar Pro
• Learn valuable networking skills
• Write a press release
• Prepare and present an event marketing campaign and timeline
• Learn the necessary steps to plan & coordinate an event
• Organize an event in collaboration with multiple agencies and departments
• Understand the marketing preferences across a variety of age demographics
• Become familiar with risk management assessment and event insurance fundamentals

School of Business Administration Mission Statement
The University of Montana’s School of Business Administration enhances lives and benefits society by providing a world-class business education in a supportive, collegial environment. We accomplish this mission by acting on our shared core values of creating significant experiences, building relationships, teaching and researching relevant topics, behaving ethically, and inspiring individuals to thrive.

ADA Accommodation Statement
Students with disabilities may request reasonable modifications by contacting me. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). “Reasonable” means the University permits no fundamental alterations of academic standards or retroactive modifications. For more information, please consult UM Disability Services for Students.

Email
According to University policy, faculty may only communicate with students regarding academic issues via official UM email accounts. Accordingly, students must use their umontana.edu accounts. Email from non-UM accounts will likely be flagged as spam and deleted without further response. To avoid violating the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, confidential information (including grades and course performance) will not be discussed via phone or email.

Course Materials: You will be required to purchase a UMEM Resource Pack (orange card) at The Bookstore. Once you purchase this card, show original receipt and card to Marlene Hendrickson. This resource pack grants you access to PollstarPro.com and is necessary to complete this course successfully. IF YOU ARE TAKING MORE THAN ONE UMEM COURSE YOU NEED ONLY TO PURCHASE THE ORANGE CARD ONE TIME PER SEMESTER.

Grading
Due to the uniqueness of these courses, its real value will be discovered through the following:

Class Participation and Attendance: You are required to actively participate in class assignments; these may be individual, group, or class assignments. Your participation will be based on the quality of your contributions, the level of professionalism you demonstrate, and the value added to each project. A peer evaluation will be submitted by each group member at the end of the semester. This evaluation will be 10% of your grade.

Mid-term Exam 10-16-14: Grade 40%

Comprehensive Final Exam 12-11-14: Grade 40%

Final Project: 10%

Plus grades are earned if within 2% of the next highest letter grade (e.g., 78% is C+). Minus grades are earned if within 2% of the next lowest letter grade (e.g., 81% is a B-). Extra credit is not available. All grades are updated in Moodle on a periodic basis. Final course grades are nonnegotiable.

BMGT 402: Principles of Entertainment Management I (Fall 2014)
Final Project Outline

Throughout the semester, you and the members of your group will develop an event plan surrounding First Night Spotlight Auditions, or instruction manual, describing the activities of your group and creating the documentation necessary to recreate your group’s activities.

The completed document is due in class on December 10, 2014.

This is a group project. Each student assigned to a group will receive the same grade as every member of that group for this final project.
