ACCIDENT

after Susan Rothenberg

An umbrella, the boy takes it from the hook on the lavender wall. Tonight he thinks rain will fill the basement & that he will shimmy up the treehouse like a rat onto its little roof & let the water do to me what a man can do to another man in the street, grackles of laughter, a wet ghost will sing its widower's body shakily out of his oiled shoes.
