Meeting a General Education Requirement: Literary and Artistic Studies
Successful completion of course requirements fulfills the GER in Group V: Literary and Artistic Studies.
“In these courses, students develop familiarity with significant works of artistic representation, including literature, music, visual art, and/or performing arts. Through this experience, students enhance their analytical skills and explore the historical, aesthetic, philosophical, and cultural features of these works.”
Upon completion of a Literary and Artistic Studies course, students will be able to:

1. analyze works of art with respect to structure and significance within literary and artistic traditions, including emergent movements and forms; and

2. develop coherent arguments that critique these works from a variety of approaches, such as historical, aesthetic, cultural, psychological, political, and philosophical.

Course Objectives and Format:

Objectives:
Following successful completion of this course, students should be able to do/know the following:

1. Describe and analyze the varieties of music that fall under the umbrella term, “Country Music.”
2. Identify and evaluate contributions of influential artists and others in the continuing development and evolution of country music.
3. Understand the role of country music in American culture.
4. Have an interest in life-long learning about and appreciation for singers, song-writers, instrumentalists, and producers associated with the genre we call “Country Music.”

Format:
Will include but not be limited to lectures, discussion, audio & video recordings, guest presentations, papers, and exams.

Policies:

Attendance/Absence:
Roll will be taken at each class session.

Grading and Assessment:
No extra credit will be accepted, except by special arrangement with the instructor.

Final Grade Determination:
- Exam #1 – 35%
- Exam #2 – 25%
- Exam #3 – 20%
- Paper #1 – 10%
- Paper #2 – 10%

Students with Disabilities/Special Needs:
See information below.
Additional Important Information:

♫ Students with Disabilities
The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). If you think you may have a disability adversely affecting your academic performance, and you have not already registered with DSS, please contact DSS in Lommasson 154. I will work with you and DSS to provide an appropriate accommodation.

♫ Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code
All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The code is available for review online at the following web address: http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/student_conduct.php.
