TOP SPOKANE GRID STAR
TO DON GRIZZLY COLORS

MISSOULA---

Steve Olgilvie, a unanimous selection for All-Spokane high school football honors following the 1966-67 season, will attend the University of Montana next fall on a football scholarship.

The announcement was made Wednesday by Grizzly assistant grid mentor Wally Brown.

Olgilvie, standing 5-9 and stocky at 175 pounds, played halfback for Shadle Park High School in Spokane.

Brown describes Olgilvie as "fast, quick, and possessing tremendous balance. We are extremely pleased to know that Steve will be joining us next fall."
