18 UM FOUNDATION
TRUSTEES TO ATTEND
SUMMER MEETING

MISSOULA---

Eighteen members of the Board of Trustees of the University of Montana Foundation will be among those attending the Foundation's annual summer meeting Thursday and Friday (July 25-26).

The two-day meeting, to begin Thursday morning in the UM Lodge and moved Thursday afternoon to the Lubrecht Experimental Forest, 30 miles northeast of Missoula, will be highlighted by the "State of the University Address " by UM President Robert T. Pantzer.

Also receiving considerable attention during the meeting will be a discussion of the "Montana Comprehensive Planning Program: (MCP), led by Dr. William D. Diehl, director of the UM Bureau of Business and Economic Research.

The MCP is a long-range study of the state's economy and natural and human resources, conducted under the Bureau's direction.

Current officers of the Foundation Board of Trustees are slated to attend the meeting. They are Robert C. Hendon, president, who is president of the Railway Express Agency-Seven Arts Transvision, New York City; Merritt N. Warden, vice president, an attorney from Kalispell; Ian B. Davidson, secretary, president of D.A. Davidson & Co., Great Falls, and Calvin L. Murphy, treasurer, who is business manager and controller at UM.

Other trustees who are scheduled to attend the two-day Foundation meeting include The Hon. George H. Boldt, U.S. District Judge, Tacoma, Wash.; F.M. Brettholle, senior vice president and corporate controller, H.J. Heinz Co., Pittsburgh, Pa.; F.E. Burnet, president of Cominco American Inc., Spokane, Wash.; James B. Castles, Secretary and General counsel for Tektronix Inc., Beaverton, Ore.; William J. Gallagher, president, Westmont Tractor Co., Missoula; James P. Lucas, attorney, Miles City.
