Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php.

All Theatre & Dance students must have an in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the School of Theatre & Dance Student Handbook. The Handbook is available online at <http://www.umt.edu/umarts/theatredance/About/handbook.php>.

There is inherent risk involved in many Theatre & Dance classes as they are very physical in nature. Please proceed through class, shop time, or rehearsal with caution. Always be mindful of your personal safety and the safety of others. Students participating in class/shop/rehearsal/performance do so at their own risk. Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student's time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without my consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student's grade.

From the EO/AA Office:

Students with disabilities may request reasonable modifications by contacting me. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). "Reasonable" means the University permits no fundamental alterations of academic standards or retroactive modifications. For more information, please consult <http://life.umt.edu/dss/>.

DANCE TECHNIQUE CLASS REQUIREMENTS

Spring Semester 2016

Many Dance Technique courses satisfy the Expressive Arts Credit. To receive an Arts Credit, the student must enroll in the course for a traditional grade and receive a C or higher. Note: February 12 - Last day to change grade option to audit, submit override forms, add courses with electronic override, change variable credit, change grade options, or drop classes in CyberBear. March 28 - last day to drop without Dean's signature

In dance, often our "texts" are the body itself, as opposed to books. Thus we will be attending five dance events this fall to witness these "texts" in action.

ATTENDANCE IS REQUIRED* AT THE FOLLOWING:

- A. ACDA Benefit Concert, UM Dance Department
 - February 5&6 (Fri & Sat) at 7:30pm; UM's Open Space Theater (PARTV 005); $5 donation at the door
- B. Spring Studio Works, UM Dance Department
 - February 27 (Sat) at 6:30pm (Program 1) & 8:30pm (Program 2); Open Space Theater (PARTV 005); $5 donation at the door
- C. All About Moon, Bare Bait Dance
 - March 10-12 (Thurs-Sat) at 8pm & March 12&13 at 2pm; Open Space Theater (PARTV 005); $12/advance tickets & $14/day-of-show tickets; www.barebaitdance.org
- D. Dance In Concert, UM Dance Department
 - March 23-26 (Wed-Sat) at 7:30pm; Montana Theater; $16/students & $20/general admission; tickets at PARTV Box Office in lobby
- E. Dance New Works, UM Dance Department
 - April 26-30 (Tues-Sat) at 7:30pm; Open Space Theater (PARTV 005); $6/students & $9/general admission; tickets at PARTV Box Office in lobby

This comes to a grand total of $44 for the semester (if you get your tickets early). Think of this like your book for the class! Your instructor will require a written critique, quiz, or something else of their own choosing as an assignment after every performance.

*If a student is unable to attend one of the concerts and wishes to make it up, he/she can write a 10 page historical paper and class presentation focusing an important time in the history of dance (in the genre of the class).

ATTENDANCE AND GRADE POLICY–DANCE TECHNIQUE

Attendance is important in any field, but vital in the field of dance. Learning to dance requires that your body do it. You won't gain in flexibility, and strength, or in your ability to pick up movement or generate your own movement by hearing about what happened from a classmate, or reading a book. In other words, there is no way to make up the material you miss.

So, I EXPECT YOU TO BE IN EVERY CLASS. However, knowing that unpredictable circumstances can arise, we are giving you two absences. You may also make up one class. You can do this by participating in another section of a similar level and style of class that you're taking. Make up classes must be approved by instructor.

AFTER YOU HAVE USED YOUR 2 ABSENCES AND 1 MAKEUP, YOU WILL BE DOCKED ONE-THIRD OF A GRADE FOR EVERY ABSENCE FOLLOWING.

Tardiness will be noted as well: every 3 "lates" equals 1 absence.

note: It is not my responsibility to follow up with you if you come into class late. If you miss attendance being called, it is your responsibility to come up to me at the end of class and ask to be counted as present but late. If you fail to do this, you will likely be counted as absent and it will count towards your total absences.

GRADING: Dance is different from many other fields in that a student's work is not as quantifiable as it is in some other subjects, such as history or math. For this reason we do not have a point breakdown, but rather general guidelines.

To receive an "A" you must:

- show signs of aptitude for dance technique, and musicality
- have an energetic, attentive attitude
- progress over the semester
- be at the top level of the class
- and, of course, fulfill the attendance, critique and exam requirements

You will receive an "F" if your absences and lack of critiques add up (or subtract) to an "F."

Your grade will be lowered by one-third of a point for each critique you do not hand in (e.g., if you start with a B, your grade will drop to a B-, then C+ and you will receive a "C+").

You may receive an "incomplete" (I) only if you have exceptional circumstances, which you have discussed with the instructor.
